

CSIR-CRRI is renowned for its capabilities in research and development activities and carrying out consultancy assignments including dissemination of knowledge through training in the areas of roads and bridges, traffic and transportation, ground improvement and geotechnical engineering, rural roads, pavement design, pavement performance and its evaluation, instrumentation, environment and road safety. With the help of IIT Roorkee's expertise in scientific and technological knowledge and professional experience in science and technology, the collaboration between the two institutions would produce excellent quality manpower in the road and transportation sector.

Today, December 14, 2021, both IIT Roorkee and CSIR-CRRI signed an MoU between them Prof. Ajit K. Chaturvedi, Director, IIT Roorkee and Prof. Satish Chandra, Director CSIR-CRRI signed the above MoU in presence of Prof. Manish Shrikhande, Dean, SRIC, Prof. S. K. Ghosh, HoD, Civil Engineering, Prof. Indrajit Ghosh and Prof. Sanhita Das. The MoU shall allow exchange of personnel through deputation, organization of joint conferences, Seminar, Practical Training of IIT-Roorkee students at CSIR-CRRI, Joint guidance of student projects / thesis at IIT Roorkee by CSIR-CRRI. Further both the institutions shall make provisions to share their respective important R&D facilities in order to promote academic and research interaction in the area of cooperation. They shall permit the exchange of software and other materials and components developed in-house in the areas of cooperation, if permissible, within the rules governing the two institutions. They shall provide access to the library facilities to scientists, members of faculty and students as per the prevailing rules and norms in the respective institutes.

Signing of MoU with CSIR-IIT Roorkee

An MoU between IITR and CSIR-CRRI was signed today by Director IITR & Director CSIR-CRRI

